Resolved by the House of Representatives the Senate concurring therein:

That at the general election to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November, A. D. 1894, the following amendment to article 10 of the constitution of the State of Missouri, concerning revenue and taxation, shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said state, to wit:

SECTION 1. In addition to the taxes to be levied for county and city purposes, under and by virtue of section 11, of article 10, of the constitution of this state, the county courts of the several counties of this state having a population of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants are authorized to levy, for road and bridge purposes, an additional tax not to exceed (15) fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars valuation. The rate herein allowed is to be levied and collected the same as other taxes for county purposes, and subject to all existing constitutional restrictions as to valuation of property.

Approved March 16, 1893.

Second Constitutional Amendment.
CONCURRENT RESOLUTION submitting to the qualified voters of Missouri an amendment to section 16 of article IX of the constitution thereof, concerning counties, cities and towns.

Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring therein:

That at the general election to be held on Tuesday next following the first Monday in November, A. D. 1894 the following amendment to section 16 of article IX of the constitution of Missouri shall be submitted to the qualified voters of said state: The following words shall be added to said section and become a part thereof, to wit:

In all counties having such a city therein, the city and county government may be separated, and the city may establish for itself a separate and distinct government for the territory embraced in its boundaries and all extensions thereof, in such manner and upon such terms as may be provided by law. The city after such separation, shall be exempt from county taxation, but shall have power to levy and collect for each fiscal year taxes on all subjects and objects of taxation, and on all property in the city liable to taxation for state purposes, not to exceed two per centum on the assessed valuation for city purposes; and when so separated, the city and county governments shall be independent of each other, and the city shall be entitled to the same representation in the general assembly, collect the state revenue and perform all other functions in relation to the state, in the same manner as if it were a county as in the constitution defined; and the residue of the county shall remain a legal county of the state of Missouri. Provided, that the said city may extend its limits from time to time, in such manner as may be authorized by law. At the time of the separation of said city and county governments, there may be a general revision of the charter of said city, and there may be general revisions of such charter at intervals of not less than five years thereafter—all such general revisions to be made in the same manner and with the same effect as hereinbefore provided for the framing and adoption of charters for such cities.

Approved April 1, 1893.
